Milliken Kept Busy In Lansing Signing Bills

LANSING (UPI)—Acting Gov. William G. Milliken kept his pen busy Tuesday by signing into law seven bills and issuing an executive order setting up the new State Department of Education.

One of the key bills signed by Milliken, acting in the absence of Gov. George Romney, was one providing household domestic servants of private employers are not included under the provisions of the newly amended Workmen's Compensation Act.

It stipulates that such employees — and also agricultural workers working for someone who employs more than three employees — are not included if they work less than 35 hours a week for 13 weeks out of a year for the same employer.

A companion measure provides that death benefits paid under workmen's compensation shall not be less than specified minimum amounts, depending on the number of dependents — with the lowest death benefit set at $27 a week.

Other Measures
Other bills signed into law by Milliken included measures to:

- Permit the Michigan Employment Security Commission to disclose confidential information to the Department of the Treasury for escrow purposes and to colleges and universities for research, with the penalty for divulging the name of any person an immediate misdemeanor.
- Make technical amendments in the Hutchinson Act regulating public employees as amended last session.
- Raise the jurisdiction of the Detroit Common Pleas Court from $3,000 to $5,000 and to give it concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court to that amount; and to give exclusive jurisdiction of the common pleas court from $500 to $1,000.
- Extend the terms of certain new circuit court judges from five to seven years; and to provide for the staggering of terms by lengthening some terms in the 3rd, 6th, 9th, 16th, 17th, and 22nd circuits to eight and ten years.

Two New Departments
—Establish the legality and continuity of the corporate existence of Alma College so it can bond a new building.

The Department of Education, headed by the elected State Board of Education with the principal executive officer the superintendent of public instruction, was the second department to be officially created under the executive reorganization act.

Milliken signed an executive order creating the Department of State on Monday. Both will become operative in their new forms on Nov. 15. He said the plans were to set up 10 of the 19 principal departments created by the act by that date.

Bricks Of Gold Found In Old Russian Building

MOSCOW (UPI) — Workers remodeling an old building in Leningrad found eight pounds of gold weighing 281 pounds under the wooden floor, the Soviet news agency Tass said Tuesday.

The building had housed a jewelry shop before the 1917 revolution when Leningrad was named St. Petersburg.

Reckless Cuban Jailed, Tries To Hijack Airliner

KEY WEST, Fla. (UPI)—Cuban refugee Luis Medina Perez was so desperate to rescue his family from Cuba that he tried to hijack an airliner, according to the FBI. He wound up jailed on an air piracy charge that carries the death penalty.

"I'm guilty," 21-year-old Perez said Tuesday after hearing FBI agent Ralph Jensen recite the allegations against him at preliminary hearing before U.S. Commissioner William Albury. Albury ordered Perez held in lieu of $25,000 bond. He was to be transferred to Miami today in the custody of U.S. Marshals to await presentation of his case to a federal grand jury.

Ken I. Carlisle, pilot of National Airlines Electra flight 209 bound from Miami to Key West, told the FBI Perez used a realistic looking pellet gun and threatened to blow up the plane and all 32 people aboard if the pilot wouldn't change course for Havana.

In a dramatic few minutes aloft, the Cuban was overpowered by the plane's crew.

Carlisle said Perez, of Union City, N.J., told stewardess Gail Vanderhayden, 19, he wanted to talk with the pilot. When the stewardess said this was against regulations, Perez pulled out the gun, an air-operated target pistol that fires bb-like pellets and looks like a luger.

Carlisle came from the cockpit to talk to Perez after the stewardess called him on the plane's intercom—but he briefed co-pilot D. S. McDaniel and engineer John Wiedemann, 38, on what to do.

The pilot said Perez "was dedicated in his intentions of going to Cuba. He said this was the only way he had to get his relatives out and that he was going to get an interview with Fidel Castro."

Carlisle went back to the cockpit at Perez' insistence, with the Cuban behind him still holding the gun. Inside, Wiedemann was hiding behind the door wielding a fire ax.

Carlisle said as soon as Perez sat down in a seat just behind the pilot's chair, he and the engineer used the ax as a bar across Perez' chest to press him in the seat while Carlisle held his gun hand down. Then Perez gave up.

Steel Use To Hit 90 Million Tons

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel consumption should reach a record 90 million tons this year despite a trailing off in the last four months, Roger Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., predicted Tuesday.

Blough said when final figures are available for this year U.S. industries will have consumed about 90 or 91 million tons compared with 84 million tons last year.

He said orders and shipments should turn upward in the first quarter of 1966 following four months of inventory liquidation by consumers who stockpiled while the industry negotiated a new labor contract.

Blough said foreign steel imports continued to cut into domestic sales this year. He said foreign steel sales will total 10.5 million tons or 11.5 percent of the domestic market.

"We hope factors will be different next year; some informed observers say imports will be less in tonnage and percentage in 1966," he said.

The board chairman declined comment on statements by importers last week that domestic steel companies are oversteering without children.

In St. Paul, Minn., Tuesday, Col. Robert P. Knight, director of the State Selective Service system, said married men would receive notices soon for draft physicals in November.

Until now, single men between 19 and 26 years of age — the third category — have filled the bulk of the draft quotas. Men married after Aug. 26 also are in the third category as a result of an order by President Johnson.

Draft delinquents and volunteers make up the first two categories.

Youth Accused Of Murder In Wayne Killing

DETROIT (UPI)—Joseph Carol Roland, 17, was arraigned Tuesday on first-degree murder charges in connection with the slaying of a foreign student at Wayne State University Sunday.

Roland was one of three youths who police said admitted the shooting of Abdul C. Accra, 25. He was fatally shot while sitting in his auto outside his apartment by three youths who giggled as they fled the scene.

Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen said at the arraignment he would seek a waiver to try a 16-year-old boy as an adult in the case. The third youngster was 13.

"It's really a shame we can't join the parents as co-defendants in this first-degree murder warrant," Olsen said.

The three youths claimed the victim was accidentally shot during a robbery attempt.

Accra came here five years ago from his native Lebanon. He married an American girl. They have a 3-year-old daughter and Mrs. Accra is pregnant with a second child.

Wayne State students and faculty announced a fund-raising drive today to help Accra's wife and children. Dr. J. Don Marsh, associate dean of students, set up an account to receive the contributions for Mrs. Accra.

Other students in the downtown housing development called a meeting tonight to seek ways to pressure public officials into providing more police protection in the neighborhood. They said students have been attacked and girls are afraid to walk the streets at night.

London Airport Disaster Kills 36

LONDON (UPI)—All 36 passengers and crew were killed early today when a British European Airways (BEA) airliner on a flight from Scotland crashed on a fog-shrouded runway at London Airport and exploded in a ball of fire.

The disaster was the first fatal crash at London Airport in 15 years. It was the fourth worst in British history.

No Americans were reported aboard.

Guided By Tower
The four-engine turbo-prop Vanguard, groping its way through the fog and darkness, crashed on its third attempt to make a landing after the pilot radioed the tower he was going to overshoot.

Pilot Capt. Norman Shackell, 43, had circled the field for almost an hour, waiting for the fog to lift. Visibility was about a third of a mile and some flights had been diverted to other airports.

Shackell was "talked down" by the tower on his third and last attempt by the airport control tower. But, according to BEA Chief Executive Henry Marking, the pilot suddenly told the tower he planned to overshoot.

Maneuver Fatal
"For some reason which is yet unknown he was unsuccessful in this and as a result the accident occurred," Marking told a news conference.

He said Shackell, "a pilot of great experience and skill," was coming in a few moments after a safe landing by another aircraft and was entitled to land if BEA's information was right that visibility was about 400 yards.

He said Shackell would have been diverted to another airport if visibility had been below this and he had plenty of fuel.

There were 30 passengers and a crew of six aboard. Most of the passengers paid the low night fare of $9.30 per seat for the flight from Edinburgh. A few standby passengers who caught the flight at the last minute paid even less—$7.40.

Most of the passengers were Scots. No Americans were reported aboard.

"There was comparatively little fog until the plane started to make its approach," one witness said. "Then the fog came down with it."

"It went up like a ball of fire," an airport worker said. "There was a stream of blue and orange flame trailing along the runway."

"The stream of fire spread out about a quarter of a mile behind the aircraft after its first impact. There was another explosion three quarters of a mile along and then a series of fires all over the place."

"Then there was one final explosion and the plane went up like a mushroom."

Marijuana Ring Bared At Niles

NILES (UPI) — Four men, three from Berrien County and one from Cass County, were in federal custody today on narcotics charges involving the alleged sale of marijuana.

They will appear before a U.S. district commissioner today for preliminary hearings. Officers identified them as Charles Hailburton, 39, of Eau Claire; James Anderson, 42, of Sodus; Charles Gillworth, 49, of Berrien Center and Leroy Smith, 44, of rural Niles.

Authorities said they had purchased a total of 24 pounds of marijuana from the group over a period of six weeks during the investigation.

They were taken in custody in a series of arrests Tuesday by Michigan State Police intelligence officers, U.S. narcotics agents and local authorities.

One officer said the defendants had apparently been "growing their own marijuana." The arrests followed another arrest in the eastern part of the state, police said.

Police Uncover Thievery Club In Orange, Calif.

ORANGE, Calif. (UPI) — "Thieves Anonymous," a junior high school club which required the stealing of $100 worth of merchandise for initiation, has been uncovered by police.

Officers reported Tuesday that the club had 22 members among students at Yorba Junior High School. Its existence was discovered when four boys — aged 12 to 14 — were taken into custody Monday for allegedly trying to steal a $200 guitar from a music company. A fifth youth escaped.

Police said the attempted theft climaxed a series of shoplifting incidents.

Club officers bore such titles as "Head of Thieves and Enforcers" and "Superior Court Judge," police said.

Armed Jackson Escaper Hunted

JACKSON (UPI) — A search spread throughout Michigan today for a 15-year-old prison farm escapee armed with two rifles and his 17-year-old girl friend who apparently fled with him Sunday night.

Police said James Marr was seen at a high school dance with Joan Maris Hunt, but the couple dropped out of sight later Sunday evening after they picked up two 22-caliber rifles at the home of a friend of the boy.

The couple drove away in a new compact car the girl had driven to the dance officers said.

Sgt. Al Wait of the Jackson County sheriff's department said Marr has escaped from the farm on numerous occasions, but has always come to the sheriff's office and surrendered. This time, however, Wait said, Marr told several persons he had no intention of being taken back to the farm from which he escaped three weeks ago.

Wait said the pair is considered "possibly dangerous."

Mackinac Bridge Painter Survives 115-Foot Fall

ST. IGNACE (UPI)—A painter who fell 115 feet from the five-mile-long Mackinac Bridge Tuesday survived with only minor injuries.

Emory McKelvie, 35, Sault Ste. Marie, was saved from drowning by a fellow crewman who slid down a rope and held him until a rescue boat reached the scene 1.5 miles offshore.

McKelvie first fell 35 feet, hit the bottom chord of a bridge span, then plummeted another 80 feet into the chilly waters of the Straits of Mackinac. Although heavily weighted by paint-soaked clothing, he was conscious after the impact and when he surfaced McKelvie managed to grasp a life jacket thrown by the crew foreman, James Petrone, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Millard Jewel, of Indian River a fellow painter, climbed down a safety rope into the water and held McKelvie until help arrived.

Both were taken by boat to a St. Ignace hospital. Jewel was not injured despite exposure to the cold water; McKelvie was held for observation.

McKelvie and Jewel were employed by Universal Delta Co., Bethlehem, Pa., painting contractors.

It was the first such accident since the bridge was opened Nov. 1, 1957. The Mackinac Bridge connects Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas, spanning the straits which connect Lakes Michigan and Huron. The water was about 90 feet deep at the spot where McKelvie fell.

Fort Benning Unit Retakes Strategic Hill

SAIGON (UPI) — Troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry Division today dropped by helicopter into the Plei Me outpost and began a massive sweep to clear the jungles of Communist troops who have been trying to overrun the camp for eight days.

Within an hour, the "Flying Horsemen" from Fort Benning, Ga., retook strategic Chu Ho Hill overlooking the besieged U.S. Special Forces garrison from the West. The fight for Plei Me appeared at an end.

A U.S. military spokesman said an estimated 464 Communists had been killed in the fighting thus far.

This was the hill seized by Viet Cong guerrillas and regulars from Communist North Viet Nam last week when they began the attack on the Plei Me camp, 215 miles northeast of Saigon in the Central Highlands.

Mortar Blown Up
The air cavalry troops dropped into the west perimeter of Plei Me from positions in nearby jungles, quickly moving out into the surrounding terrain from which the Communists had been shelling the fortress since Oct. 19.

Earlier, a Communist mortar emplacement near the camp was blown up by a government tank crew which rolled up to the position and fired at point blank range.

The heavy armor had been part of a massive U.S.-Vietnamese buildup at Plei Me. The 1st Cavalry had been supporting the outpost with artillery bombardment but moved into the camp perimeter when only light harassment fire was reported during the night.

Air Power Helps
Rescue teams meanwhile made their way up the steep slopes of Monkey Mountain, west of the Da Nang airbase, and found the wreckage of two U.S. Marine Corps F4C Phantom jets which crashed Tuesday night, apparently killing the four crewmen aboard.

The U.S. air power and that of the 1st Cavalry artillery apparently made the difference at Plei Me, 25 miles south of the major U.S. installation at Pleiku.

The planes struck Communist positions with rockets, napalm and bombs, at times on the very fringe of the outpost itself. The Reds also lost heavily in suicide human wave assaults which were beaten back by heavy machinegun and small arms fire.

Communist losses at Plei Me are estimated in the hundreds.

New Car Tags Blue On Biege

LANSING (UPI) — The 1966 Michigan license plates will have dark blue letters on a beige background, a color scheme designed to make them unique among states.

Secretary of State James Hare said the new colors have no special significance.

"They just mean we're not competitive with any other state," Hare said.

The 1966 plates will also not require tabs after one year's use.

The state abandoned the use of tabs on license plates following several years of protests from motorists who complained the plates rusted and presented a bad image to the major auto producing state.

Tabs were used on license plates every third year starting in 1959.

Pope May Visit Poland In 1966

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Vatican sources said today there is "a good possibility" that Pope Paul VI will visit Communist Poland next year.

"But no final decision has been made," one source told United Press International.

Italy's largest newspaper, Il Messaggero, reported in a front-page story today that the pontiff was planning the trip to the Iron Curtain country.

There has been speculation for months that Paul would choose Poland for his next journey. The occasion would be the 1,000th anniversary — or Millennium — of the introduction of Christianity into Poland.

Il Messaggero's story was written by its correspondent in Warsaw, the Polish capital.

"The pontiff will make a pilgrimage to the sanctuary at Czestochowa where he will celebrate the Black Madonna," the Warsaw dispatch said. It added that the Pope would make the trip on May 3, 1966.

Tourist Council Starts Boosting For Winter Fun

LANSING (UPI)—Most everyone is waiting for Indian summer but the Michigan Tourist Council is passing out winter fun booklets.

The council said Tuesday that "Michigan is ready for what is expected to be its biggest winter vacation season."

The council estimated that 250,000 persons will spend about $23 million at the state's ski centers.

Even more persons were expected to take advantage of other winter sports activities such as ice fishing, skating, tobogganing and hunting.

Changi Prison Hangs 18 Men In Warden Slaying

SINGAPORE (UPI) — Eighteen members of a Chinese secret society will be hanged Friday for killing a warden during a prison riot in 1963.

The victim was Daniel S. Sutton. He was in charge of a rehabilitation settlement for hardened criminals on Pulau Senang Island, scene of the bloody riot in June, 1963.

The mass execution will be carried out at Changi Prison.

Officers Cite Pension Needs And Benefits

Should an Escanaba policeman or fireman with less than 10 years of service die or become permanently disabled in the line of duty, neither his widow nor his children would receive anything under present Pension Act 135.

But if the voters of Escanaba approve at a special election to be held Nov. 2, this will be changed to provide immediate benefits to survivors under Pension Act 135.

"We consider this the most important reason for our efforts to bring Escanaba policeman and fireman under the new pension act," said Sgt. Richard Frederick.

Immediate Benefit

Under the present act the policeman or fireman must have served 10 years with his department to be eligible for disability benefit, or his widow and children for support in event of his death in line of $1,100 annually; and if he would receive approximately $1,000 annually; and if he dies his widow would get about $50 a month and his children about $8 per month per child.

Pension Act 345 which will come before the voters of Escanaba on Nov. 2 would (if adopted) provide for policemen and firemen immediate benefits of $2,300 annually for disability, $127 monthly for widows, and $14 per month per dependent child. Under both plans the support to widows ends if they remarry.

Increased Pension

"While the family protection the new plan provides is most important, the increase in the amount of money received by the officer at the time he is eligible for pension is also important," said Sgt. Frederick.

Rusk Confers With President

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI) — President Johnson had a foreign policy discussion with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the agenda at his ranch today.

Rusk flew to the LBJ Ranch Tuesday night from Dallas where he spoke at Southern Methodist University.

In his speech, Rusk said it was "tragic" but "necessary" that young Americans were still dying for peace. He said he would fly to Geneva immediately if assured the Soviet Union wanted to negotiate for peace in Viet Nam.

Rusk was Johnson's first official caller since the President arrived in Texas Saturday for long convalescence from his gall bladder surgery of Oct. 8.

It has been a restful stay for him so far, with bits of business such as bill signings and document reviews combining with his hours of relaxation.

School Registers Juniors To Take Scholarship Test

Students who expect to graduate from Escanaba Area High School and enter college in 1967 (Juniors this year) can register now at the school office for the 1966-67 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which will be given in the school at 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 1.

Participating students pay a $1 fee, which is remitted by the school to the testing agency, Science Research Associates. If a student is unable to pay, the testing fee will be paid by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation if requested by his school.

Highest-scoring students in each state will be named Semifinalists and will receive further consideration in the Merit Program. In addition to awards made by NMSC, more than 280 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, other organizations, and individuals give scholarships through the Merit Program.

Some 2,000 Merit Scholarships were awarded last year with stipends ranging from $400 to $8,000 for four college years. A winner's stipend is determined by assessing the amount of financial assistance he will need at the college he will attend.

About 11,000 students have won Merit Scholarships in the first ten annual programs.

Wayne Loses $175,000 Suit

DETROIT (UPI) — Wayne State University was ordered to pay $175,000 damages to Dr. William Q. Wolfson Monday for damages because the school refused him faculty status after returning from Army duty in 1956.

The decision culminated eight weeks of testimony before Circuit Judge Charles Kaufman who said by not keeping proper records of Dr. Wolfson's duties and forwarding them to "parties on request for affirmation," the doctor suffered damages in a very real nature.

The university maintained Wolfson was a student doing research and not a faculty member.

The judge said the school must have recognized Wolfson as a fulltime research associate and faculty member because of an army deferment it gained for him which is not available to students.

Attorney Solomon Bienenfeld, of the university's provost office, said he would urge the school to take the ruling to the Appellate Court.

Stravinsky At Northern Monday

MARQUETTE — Concert pianist Soulima Stravinsky, son of noted composer Igor Stravinsky, will present a recital at Northern Michigan University Monday, Nov. 1.

The public is invited to attend the recital which will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theater on the NMU campus. There is no admission charge.

One of the foremost interpreters of Mozart and Scarlatti, Stravinsky, who is the foremost exponent of the piano music of his father, studied piano and composition in Paris at the Ecole Normale de Musique.

Stravinsky has been a member of the music faculty at the University of Illinois since 1950.

John Mitchell Given Tribute

"A Tribute to John Mitchell," Escanaba civic and business leader who died recently, was voiced by Weekly Progress, publication of Branch Prison at Marquette. Among contributions of time and effort to many worthwhile causes, Mr. Mitchell was a counselor to the inmates of the prison.

Their "Tribute" was in the Oct. 22 issue of the prison paper published by the inmates:

"In the growing throng of public-minded citizens who are taking a personal interest in penal reform programs, seldom do we find the rare combination of sincerity, leadership and selfless devotion that was the late John J. Mitchell.

"Last Thursday morning, John — as he was known by his numerous friends here — passed away quietly and unexpectedly at his home in Escanaba. This was, in a sense, true to John's mode and stature, as he will long be remembered. Much of what he did was done in a quiet, unassuming manner, and this was often more than could reasonably be expected. Yet he made you feel quite welcome to the efforts he stood ready to devote in the interests of his fellow man.

"Any question of John's motives were dispelled before they took shape by his oft-repeated assurance that 'The most I can possibly leave with you boys here is far less than I take away.'

"Thus, he lifted spirits by raising others to his own height.

"It would be redundant to set out the details of John Mitchell's social life in our prison paper. The free press will do this, as is the function of the daily local.

"We think of John in ways of perhaps lesser importance to the press, but of greater significance to us. We think, for example, that during the past half-dozen years it has been quite wonderful to have had his help and fellowship in most of the group activities which have arisen.

"Whether it was to sit in on a meeting as an adviser, or to be a guest speaker at a class graduation, John always managed to show up, despite inclement weather or pressing business.

"We here, it seemed were his 'pressing business.' Records show that he did not miss a single graduation of the Public Speaking Class in the past five years. In fact, Class No. 12 honored him 'for his fine talk' by unanimously voting for itself the name of the John Mitchell Class.

Ford Executive Heads C. Of C.

LANSING (UPI)—Thomas R. Reid, a Ford Motor Co. executive who was one of the founders and charter board members of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, was elected chairman of the chamber's board Tuesday.

Vice Chairman of the state chamber for three years, Reid succeeded T. Austin Saunders, President of the General Telephone Co. of Michigan who completed his term.

Reid, director of civic and governmental affairs for Ford, has been with the company since 1950. He has also been vice president and a director of McCormick and Co. in Baltimore; and was assistant director of defense mobilization in charge of manpower in the office of the president in 1953 and was chairman of the personnel policy board of the U.S. Department of Defense in 1949.

Other officers elected at the board meeting were:

Treasurer, Fred Marin, president of the Bank of Lansing; vice chairman, Ralph Huhtala of Iron Mountain; A.E. Stradwick, Clare; and C. Lincoln Lindholm of Grand Rapids.

Others included Creighton D. Holden, St. Clair; James McNamee of Kalamazoo; Harry Guyseman of Lansing; Joseph Brady of Howell; and W.D. MacDonnell of Detroit.

Milwaukee Girl March Of Dimes Child For 1966

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lori Ann Wagner of Milwaukee, a five-year-old with a crippling spine defect, will be the National March of Dimes child for 1966, the National Foundation announced Tuesday.

Lori was born with the defect. Despite braces, she took her first steps when she heard someone playing the family piano at age 2½. The girl headed toward the piano and has been picking out tunes since.

Her father is a bandleader and her grandfather and two aunts were performers. Lori was the Milwaukee County poster child for the March of Dimes last year.

Anne Ford, 22, To Wed Broker

NEW YORK (UPI)—Anne Ford, 22-year-old daughter of Henry Ford II, will marry handsome divorced stockbroker Giancarlo Uzielli, on Dec. 28, her family announced today.

The blonde Detroit automotive heiress, who was named to the world's best dressed list when she turned 21, began dating Uzielli, known as "Gianni," about a year ago after his divorce from Anne-Marie Deschodt. He has applied for an annulment from the Vatican but it has not yet been granted.

Uzielli, a Harvard graduate, is the son of Italian-born stockbroker Giorgio Uzielli of New York and Florence, Italy, and his divorced wife, the former Sybil Esmonde. The bridegroom-to-be's mother, now Mme. Sybil Bellotti of Paris, is a connection of the Rothschild banking family.

Miss Ford has been living in New York with her mother, Mrs. Anne McDonnell Ford, since she divorced the president of Ford Motor Co. in 1964. Ford since has married an Italian divorcee, Mrs. Maria Christina Vettore Austin.

Miss Ford and her elder sister Charlotte were given lavish debuts by their parents at the Fords' Grosse Pointe Estate. The parties were reputed to have cost $250,000 or more. The bride-to-be is a alumna of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Noroton, Conn.

The Ford sisters were named to the 1964 list of best dressed women of the world by a vote of fashion editors and designers. They were the youngest ever named to the list and the only sisters ever named together.

Auto Accident Act Bolstered

LANSING (UPI)—Measures designed to strengthen the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act were signed into law Monday by Acting Gov. William Milliken. Several other companion bills also were signed into law, including one making it mandatory for all insurance policies to carry an uninsured motorist clause.

The fall session of the Legislature amended the motor vehicle act to require uninsured motorists to pay $35 before they can purchase a license Nov. 1.

The money would go into a motor vehicle fund to pay for all personal injury claims of motorists caused by uninsured motorists and damages in excess of $200.

A $1 fee also will be charged insured drivers to give the fund a boost. There are approximately 3.5 million drivers in the state, including about 550,000 uninsured motorists.

Milliken also signed into law a companion bill to the act which calls for all automobile liability insurance policies to include uninsured motorists coverage beginning Jan. 1, 1966 unless a motorist rejects the coverage in writing.

Another measure signed by the Acting Governor appropriates $7,972,353 to the motor vehicle fund to begin its administration.

The original motor vehicle claims act passed the Legislature last spring set property damage claims at $50 deductible and the uninsured motor vehicle fee at $25. The old act also included hit and run property damage. The hit-and-run provision was struck from the act by lawmakers during the fall session because they felt there would be too many false claims.

"The changes will eliminate many small claims but will maintain coverage for the major injuries caused by uninsured motorists of our state. We now have a system which will protect the insured motorist of Michigan from damages caused by the uninsured and irresponsible minority of Michigan drivers," Milliken said.

Secretary of State James Hare reminded motorists the uninsured motorist fee does not provide insurance for them but only gives the right to drive.

Milliken also signed into law a bill appropriating $455,384 to the secretary of state for state driver license examining programs in Detroit, Harper Woods - Grosse Pointe, Hamtramck - Highland Park, Ann Arbor and Macomb County.

Farm Leaders Celebrate

Ten years ago Wesley Hawley, an apple grower and lay preacher with an undefeatable urge to organize human affairs, came to the Upper Peninsula to organize its first County Farm Bureau. He had been active with the Michigan Farm Bureau downstate and thought it should send a missionary to the Land of Hiawatha.

Some of our U.P. counties are sparse, agriculturally, but wherever we have sizeable farming colonies Hawley's high pitched voice was to be heard, urging organization for more bargaining power. Norwood Eastman of the American Farm Bureau Federation, Chicago, then with the Michigan Farm Bureau, said "Wesley could come in after five bad meetings and say that all that was needed was more understanding of the Farm Bureau."

Such men cannot be defeated, only delayed, and eventually all the U.P. was organized by the Farm Bureau. Where farming was too small a part of the economy to justify a single County Farm Bureau, several counties were lumped into one Bureau.

They have been operating for 10 years coinciding with the greatest farm revolution in the history of the nation and the world. Unquestionably the Farm Bureau influenced the change in the Upper Peninsula. It didn't stop the farm decline, but it brought its members guidance in what American farming must do to survive, so that farmers could make an informed choice about their future; whether to stay on the soil and make a stronger bid for a share of the food market, or go into another endeavor.

Hugo Kivi, fieldman for the Farm Bureau in the U.P., thought that the County Farm Bureau's greatest achievements were in their home areas, in bolstering education, working for snow plowing, establishing livestock auctions and other farm services.

Their organization gave farmers access to Farm Bureau leadership in legislation, marketing, and other needs. It brought them valuable new relationship with other farmers.

When Farm Bureau leaders from the Upper Peninsula gathered in Escanaba for a 10th birthday party, they showed their appreciation of the importance of this organization and of its achievements by coming from across the whole breadth of the Peninsula. Their program reminded them all that Farm Bureau has strong ideas about what's good for American farming and what's good for America.

When the Farm Bureau was organized in 1919 farmers were engaged in general farming and they were selling their produce in their home areas. Today farmers are specialists and one third of the average American meal has traveled over 1,000 miles to the dinner table. There's now a truly world market for farm products.

The farmer had better change or go out of business, because the world has changed and it'll put him out of business unless he meets new conditions. Eastman said if farmers don't produce for the market instead of to market, they're sunk.

He suggested that there's no basic conflict between the producer and the marketer and that farmers should rethink their relationship with their allies in the food industry — the processors and the marketers. "The city man (to whom the farm produce goes) has his troubles, too," said Eastman.

But Farm Bureau is going to do a lot of thinking before it changes its conviction that America's best interests are best served by competitive markets. It thinks that they are the great trial for economic systems, rewarding the enterprising and the competitive and giving the market great efficiency of production. It thinks that government efforts to maintain desirable levels of farm income by artificial means like price supports with their inevitable need to control production by quotas or acreage limitation put the American farmer in a straight jacket that will weaken his position in the world food market.

In a country which has given overwhelming endorsement to big government and the idea of a managed economy, this is a brave voice pleading for courage and self-reliance as tried and proved aids to American progress.

The farmer is in a very difficult business today. He was once the dominant businessman and voter in this country and now he's a minority in both because he has become so efficient that we no longer have need for so many farmers. He takes less income from his investment that most businessmen and he needs increasing skill to take any profit at all. He is indispensable and the hope of the world that hunger can be conquered. His plea for free markets should echo everywhere.

CONSERVATION

I am sending along a couple of articles, that you may find interesting, as I did. One is from the Stars and Stripes, sent to me by a soldier stationed in Germany and deals with hunting in Italy. I noted that while we consider it unlawful to carry a gun out-of-suitcase in an automobile, the Italians think it unsporting to kick a pointer in the stern.

The other is from the Sport Fishing Institute's Bulletin and indicated the amount that the New Jersey people expend on fish and game law enforcement; a helicopter costs about $90 per hour. We are doing well here if we can get a Piper cub or equivalent for law investigation or patrol.

Jim Walker
(Conservation officer)

MILAN, Italy (AP) — Close to a million hunters took to fields and forests throughout Italy Aug. 29 at the start of the fall hunting season. More than 30 were carried back full of buckshot, three of them dead.

One of the dead was a hunter in a preserve near Florence who was arguing with another hunter over who shot a pheasant. Both had fired from different positions at the same time. Other hunters nearby said they heard a shot later and found Primo Pini, 42, dead. Antonio Mannucci, 28, told police who charged him with manslaughter that he was reloading, after reaching a peaceful settlement, when his gun accidentally went off.

Another victim was in tall grass near Milan and was hit full in the body by an hunter some distance away who saw rustling and thought it was a quail.

Among the injured were at least three who lost an eye and two who lost one or more fingers. A son shot his 59-year-old father. A father shot his 9-year-old son.

Police said they fined 8,000 illegal hunters without licenses and arrested three for mistreatment of bird dogs.

According to an item in Jersey Angler's News for Aug. 12, Barret Irwin of Leonardo, N.J., was penalized a 10-day jail sentence for netting with a trawl inside New Jersey territorial waters. The 10 days in jail was in default of a fine of $1,000 resulting from conviction on the illegal netting charge after helicopter patrol arrest.

The $1,000 fine is an increase over previous levies and is the result of new legislation passed through the efforts of sportsmen's groups. Previously, the fine for a second offense was $500, but under the new regulations the first offense brings a fine of $500 and the second and subsequent offenses $1,000.

PRaise

I read your editorial of Oct. 23 with great interest. First, of all, I am well aware of the fact that it is easy to criticize but difficult to praise. Although the Michigan Education Association has had many praiseworthy accomplishments in the past 113 years, we seldom see this in print, but a poor speaker brought quick editorial report.

The title of your article reads, "Let's Help Teachers." This is an excellent idea! But I fail to see how closing the institutes would help us. As far as improving them, I would agree. The Michigan Education Association is an organization of many thousand Michigan educators whose purpose is to continually improve the educational program for the boys and girls of Michigan. The institutes are designed to bring educators together from various fields to share ideas and mutual problems. One phase of its program is to bring outstanding speakers to the high calling which is theirs. Other programs are brought in to instruct or to inform. Rarely are they merely entertaining.

I was one of the fortunate who was privileged to hear Bob Richards, twice Olympic champion, speak at our MFA institute a year ago. He spoke to a record breaking audience and was paid by the MEA and not the Wheaties Co. I'm the teacher, along with many others, for having heard him. Was he a worthwhile part of our institute program? When he finished speaking, the entire group gave him a rousing standing ovation. Were we inspired? I should say we were!

Bob Richards, twice Olympic champion, whose personal life represents the very best in our country, has no doubt influenced multitudes to higher and better living. He challenged us to go all out with the youth of our land with whom we daily come in contact.

I believe you're unfair in comparing Bob Richards with Lefty Gomez, one of the speakers at our 1965 MEA Institute. It was unfortunate that Mr. Gomez failed to understand that he was addressing teachers who came for instruction and inspiration — not to be entertained. For example, Alpena Institute had Governor Romney as a speaker; Grand Rapids had Sam Levenson. Can we justify condemning all the institutes throughout the state because part of the local area program failed to meet the true objectives of the MEA? I think not.

Nixon For 1968?

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Richard M. Nixon, unmistakably campaigning for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, appears fully convinced that the tactics and techniques he used as nominee in 1960 will serve him better now than they did then.

A close watch on his 1965 platform performance shows him to be largely unchanged as a campaigner, except that his present posture as a worker in the party vineyards allows him to relax more and indulge more frequently in witty sallies.

Already well-remarked by many is one clear Nixon purpose in 1965 and 1966—to collect a storehouse of credits among state GOP leaders and candidates at all levels by stumping their territories tirelessly to raise money and promote Republican victories.

In 1960, of course, his "bank of gratitude" was heaped high after eight years of such efforts.

More interesting at the moment, however, is the fact that Nixon is today presenting himself to party people almost exactly as he offered himself five years ago.

Basically it is the image of the foreign affairs specialist, tempered by eight years close to the White House, well-traveled, the friend and equal of world leaders. Hear him on the trail:

"I've just returned from Viet Nam. Japan and the other areas that have been in the news. I've now been in 55 countries on both sides of the Iron Curtain."

"I remember talking recently to an Asian prime minister about our problems at home and he said: 'Mr. Nixon, what does it mean when we read of protests against your government's policies in Viet Nam?'"

And I said: 'Mr. Prime Minister, ...'"

Quite naturally, reminiscences from his days as vice president come easily to him: "Mr. Eisenhower called me into his office and said: 'You know, Dick, we've got to do something about ...'"

As in 1960, Nixon manages always to suggest—without saying it—that all this seasoning and these rich contacts are at the voters' disposal if only they will act wisely.

sometimes almost whispered as if conveyed confidentially to two or three persons in a small room, Nixon offers samples of the judgment people can expect from him:

"Do you realize the trouble America is in around the world? Pick up your map when you go home. You can't find any place where we aren't worse off than in 1960."

"NATO is a shambles. Central Africa is a playground for the Communists. Cambodia, Laos and Burma are on the brink ..."

Underscoring his foreign affairs bent, Nixon hardly bothers to dwell on domestic matters except to draw laughs by labeling the nation's lawmakers, active under President Johnson's prod, as the "do-anythings" Congress.

Lines like that, and "let's take the profit out of poverty," he uses often enough to suggest he is honing a set campaign speech for heavy duty in 1968.

In asides from policy matters, he still likes to inject little comments about his family, about his school days and his early life in Whittier, Calif. At 52 he talks a bit like an elder statesman now, saying of young state candidates: "I was once in their age brackets."

All of this helps Nixon's self-projection as a kind of friendly neighborhood counselor. But, as in 1960, he wants his listeners to remember that this particular counselor has a tough core of knowledge about the world—and deserves not merely to be chosen for high leadership.

Big Car Theft Ring Uncovered

CHICAGO (UPI) — Police claimed Tuesday to have uncovered a three-state auto theft ring they estimated did a million dollars a year business.

Three men were arrested Monday night in suburban East Hazel Crest. Police said they found more than 100 partially completed automobile titles from Michigan, Indiana and Illinois.

Arrested were Richard Buonomo, 26; Steven Bedalow, 33; and Pasquale Accettura, 36. Police found the equipment, also including notary public seals, typewriters and bogus seals used in processing title transfers, in Buonomo's home.

The three were charged with auto theft. Federal officials indicated they would investigate.

Police said they found equipment making it possible for thieves to steal a car, provide a title, change the serial number of the car's engine block and attach a new serial plate to the auto body.

People, Events Of Yesteryears

From the files of the Escanaba Daily Press

25 YEARS AGO

Escanaba city officials are going journalistic these days. City Manager George E. Bean is preparing an article for "Public Management" on the city's master "Operating and Budget Control" system which is unique and has been commended as one of the most complete, convenient systems of the kind.

John Norgaard, superintendent of the sewage disposal department is preparing an article for "American City" on the operating of a gas engine at the disposal plant which burns formerly wasted sewage gas to supply power and heat.

50 YEARS AGO

Covered from its very summit to the base is the front of Kratz Brothers big department store with advertising banners announcing the opening of a great stock reducing sale.

Charles Gunderson has taken the agency for the Dort automobile and has already received a demonstrating machine, driving the car to this city from Milwaukee early in the week. When the trip was made, the roads through Wisconsin were in the worst possible condition but Mr. Gunderson made the trip without accident, passing scores of heavy cars that were stalled in the mud.

Ann Landers

Boy, 12, Mother Require Privacy

Dear Ann Landers: My friend seems to think it is improper for my 12-year-old son to undress in my presence at bedtime. Sometimes the boy takes his clothes off in front of me and doesn't think a thing of it. At other times he develops streaks of bashfulness and asks me to leave the room, which is O. K. I always oblige. There's no way of telling how he's going to feel about this from one day to the next.

And while we are on the subject, what about a mother undressing in the presence of her 12-year-old son? I have never made a point of hiding when I dress or undress because I don't want my son to grow up thinking the human body is something to be ashamed of. What are your views?—NO FIG LEAFER

Dear No Fig: Most 12-year-old boys want privacy and they deserve it. You are wise not to make an issue of it when your son develops "streaks of bashfulness."

YOU should be wanting privacy, too, Mother. Disrobing before a boy of 12 is a form of subconscious seduction. No point of covering up should be made to small children, but by the time they are 12 years old children should not see a parent of the opposite sex parading around nude.

Dear Ann Landers: I make my home with my daughter who was widowed two years ago. She needs me badly because I take care of her three children while she works.

I just learned the terrible truth about something I have suspected for almost six months. My daughter is having an affair with her supervisor. He is a married man with a family.

My religion has always meant a great deal to me. I feel that I am offending God by living in a home where there is shameful sin. I could manage financially if I took a room elsewhere, and I think perhaps I should do just that. It would be difficult to leave the children but at least I would feel right with my conscience. I read the Bible every night for comfort but I cannot find the answer to my problem. Can you help?—TORMENTED MOTHER

Dear Mother: Keep reading. When you come to the line, "Hate the sin but love the sinner," put a bookmark in that place and read it every day. If you leave, your daughter would have to hire a housekeeper. Your grandchildren would be the losers—and so would you. Stay where you are needed.

Dear Ann Landers: Please do us teen-age girls a favor and publish this in the paper. How can a girl who isn't especially beautiful keep a fellow interested without letting him get away with murder? My cousin who has gone steady with five different guys says the best way is to let a fellow make slow gains. Her system didn't work out very well. She is now in the Florence Crittenton home for unwed mothers. Somebody made a few gains she hadn't planned on.

Another girl says it's best to let the boy know from the first date that good conversation is all he is going to get because boys respect girls who draw the line from the very first. Maybe she is right but she sure stays home a lot. I am an extremist. I believe that the best policy is to stay in the middle of the road. What do you say?—PUSSY-CAT

Dear Pussycat: Get out of the middle of the road, kiddo. That's where most of the accidents happen. That girl who stays home a lot has the right idea. When she does go out it will be with the right kind of fellows. The girl who feels she must resort to intimacy in order to keep a boy interested admits she has nothing else to offer.

Too many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says:

Infection In Boils

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstad

Job had boils and the lowly member of the family should have his own towel and washcloth in the bathroom, and paper towels should be used in the kitchen.

Although everyone who gets a series of boils is not diabetic, it is well to remember that diabetics are very susceptible to staphylococcal infections but with many of us a slight break in the skin is all that is needed to start a boil, abscess or infected hangnail. Once a boil has formed, it is easy to spread the infection to other parts of the body or other members of the family.

Although cleanliness is essential in preventing the spread of these infections, the staphylococci may even lurk in the family soap dish so, if a member of the household has boils, either provide each member with his own soap dish or get a dispenser of germicidal detergent.

All dressings used to cover a boil should, when discarded, be promptly burned. After changing a dressing your hands should be washed with a soap that contains hexachlorophene or triethylcarbanilide. Each marrow.

Airport Needs Keyed To Area And Its Future

Until the airport at Escanaba is improved and becomes truly an attractive and effective "front door" for Delta County its usefulness is being only partly realized, the Escanaba Rotary Club was told at its meeting in the House of Ludington on Tuesday.

The speakers were Councilman Harold Vanlerberghe of Escanaba, veteran aviator and architect Walter Arntzen, and Jon Thorin, manager of the Escanaba municipal airport.

They were introduced by Robert Haack of the Rotary Club's program committee. The meeting was conducted by Don Yost, club president.

Need Improvements
Presently the airport at Escanaba is well located although eventually the north-south runway should be moved to the west, said Vanlerberghe. The removal of the entire airport to a new location would not receive state or federal fund encouragement, he said.

"Let us make up our minds that moving the airport to a new location is out of the question," the councilman said. "No matter how we look at it, the truth of the matter is that the airport is ideally located."

Relocation and construction of a new terminal building is essential, together with lengthening of the east-west runway westward to handle anticipated jet-planes to be put into service by North Central Airlines.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH With Little Worry

Eat, talk, laugh or sneeze without fear of insecure false teeth dropping, slipping or wobbling. FASTEETH holds plates firmer and more comfortably. This pleasant powder has no gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Doesn't cause nausea. It's alkaline (non-acid). Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

These improvements would be financed in part by local funds which would be raised through a proposed 2 mill Delta County tax levy on which the citizens will vote in a special election to be held Dec. 6. The 2 mills would be levied for one year (on the 1966 tax roll) and would raise approximately $152,666 for airport financing.

County Interested
The Delta County Board of Supervisors is considering proposals that a county airport authority be established and that the airport be owned and operated as a county-wide facility. The City of Escanaba has indicated its willingness to dispose of the airport to the county for a nominal sum.

Arntzen, among the pioneer pilots of the area, brought his first plane to Escanaba from Milwaukee in 1926. There was no airport here and a beach strip served for a runway "until the water came up."

He outlined the history of the development of aviation and of airports and said that the city's investment figure for the airport "is much much higher than it should be" because back in 1933 and the WPA the make-work project kept out the use of power machinery and the cost of development soared.

Need Is Urgent
The Escanaba airport's east-west runway is excellent and expandable but the north-south runway will eventually have to be moved, he believes. The good location and weather conditions give Escanaba "more flying days each year than at any other Upper Peninsula port," Arntzen declared.

There is "urgent" need to improve the facilities at the airport, he continued. The port is for air travelers the "main front entrance to Delta County" and in its present condition it leaves a bad impression. "Most cities of the U. P. are far ahead of us in this way and there is an urgent need to improve the facilities here."

Thorin, the airport manager, told of the traffic growth and the improvement of communication facilities. The period July, August and September shows a continuing traffic volume increase in air passengers at Escanaba, according to North Central Airlines, he said.

The passenger total for the three months in 1963 was 2,865, for 1964 it was 2,902, and for 1965 the figure is 3,552, Thorin reported.

September Milk Income In U. P. Tops Year Ago

September milk production was down in September, compared with a year ago, but income to producers was up in total and average and more of the milk went to the Class I (drinking) market, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Blend (average) price per hundredweight was $4.14 compared with $3.97 a year ago, and total production was 9.3 million pounds compared with 9.7 million.

Daily average receipts were 313,299 pounds compared with 323,598, and average income was $184.88 compared with $174.90 for seven days. Total income was $408,852 compared with $402,519.

farms shrunk 21 in the year, to 516, and the number of bulk tank producers increased from 370 to 398 as more can producers quit.

Pre-School Aid Channeled From Action Agencies

UPCAP has notified all Upper Peninsula school superintendents that there is enough federal money available so that all U.P. schools can run a one-semester or a summer program of pre-school aid with Office of Economic Opportunity funds.

"This should carry you until money becomes available under the new Education Act," says Frank W. Mead, UPCAP community action specialist, in a memo to superintendents. But all OES financed programs must be planned in cooperation with and requested by the Community Action Agency serving your area."

There are 6 such agencies in the U.P. That serving Schoolcraft, Delta and Menominee counties has its office in Escanaba and is headed by Ray LaPorte.

"We will continue to help as we can," said Mead "but your primary contact will be with your CAA."

Base Will Close For Monday Drill

K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base will conduct a 12 hour practice war time mission exercise under simulated enemy nuclear attack conditions on Monday, Nov. 1.

In announcing this "Great Effort" exercise, 410th Bomb Wing Commander Col. Pete C. Sianis said that base sirens will be used to "warn" of various simulated wartime emergency situations. The exercise will be confined to Sawyer AFB.

Col. Sianis said, "The base will be closed to the general public except for emergency use." The main gate will be the only entrance to the base. Contractors and their personnel working on construction projects on the base will be admitted.

Dependents of military personnel residing off-base and civilians with base privileges will not be permitted entry during the exercise except for emergency reasons.

Briefly Told

Report cards for the first marking period will be issued by the Escanaba Area High School Friday.

Robert J. LaVigne, 45, of Rte. 2, Bark River, who was arrested Tuesday night by Conservation officers and charged with attempting to kill a deer with aid of an artificial light, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Justice Ross Davis of Gladstone at 2:30 a. m. today and was assessed a fine of $100 and costs of $7.30 with alternative of 15 days in jail. LaVigne paid the fine, of which $50 was suspended.

Marriage license applications have been made at the County Clerk's office by Russell Alpha Wickman, 605 Superior Ave., Gladstone, and Sharon Ann Stenac, Bay View Location, Gladstone, and by Gerald George Weberg and Dianne Lynn Koehler, both of Fond du Lac, Wis.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court summonses to Dennis R. Caron, Wells, speeding; Daniel C. Skopp, 508 S. 13th St., speeding and excessive noise; Margaret M. Larsen, 401 S. 11th St., defective head light; William J. Rowley, 1610 N. 16th St., defective head light; and to Michael J. Gannon, 426 S. 15th St., speeding.

Home Coming Rally At MSU

EAST LANSING (UPI)—More than 25,000 alumni are expected to invade the Michigan State University campus for the annual homecoming festivities Friday and Saturday.

Things will get underway Friday afternoon with a round of parties at campus living quarters, followed by the alumni banquet to be addressed by MSU President John A. Hannah and a football pep rally starring the homecoming queen and Coach Duffy Daugherty.

Dave Brubeck and his quartet will be featured in a modern jazz program Friday night.

Saturday will open with a round of coffee-hour reunions, and pregame ceremonies including awards for homecoming displays and presentation of the queen and her court.

The MSU-Northwestern football game will, of course, occupy the afternoon.

Saturday night the schedule calls for a homecoming dance featuring the Peter Palmer orchestra and awards to the homecoming queen and her court.

Legal Arrest

TRENTON (UPI)—The New Jersey Superior Court upset an ancient common law rule that man may forcibly resist an illegal arrest.

In a case involving a man who allegedly sold liquor to a minor, the court said "force begets force and escalation into bloodshed is a frequent probability."

Long War Ahead

WASHINGTON (UPI)—American troops may have to stay in Viet Nam for a long time after any cease fire is negotiated or hostilities decline, Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson suggests.

"The security of the people and the process of nation building will be required," the general said Tuesday in a speech. "We should have no illusions about achieving success quickly in Viet Nam."

Native Of Baraga Named Research Director At Tech

HOUGHTON (UPI)—Dr. Carl A. Moyer, head of the surgery department at Washington University, St. Louis, was named director of research at Michigan Technological University today.

Moyer is well known for developing a new treatment for bad burns in which a weak nitrate solution is used.

He is a native of Baraga, Mich., 30 miles south of the Michigan Tech campus in the state's Upper Peninsula. He has been head of Washington University's surgery department since 1951 and also served as surgeon-in-chief at Barnes and Children's hospitals, St. Louis.

Blast Wrecks House; 4 Hurt

MIDLAND (UPI)—A house owner and three firemen were injured seriously when a house was leveled by a gas explosion.

Thomas Sovine and the firemen were walking away from the house, which had just been evacuated, when they were hurled to the ground by the explosion which ripped the house to pieces and sent glass and household items flying into nearby trees and yards. The blast broke windows in nearby homes.

Sovine, who was alone in the house, smelled gas about 6:15 p.m. and called the fire department. Firemen arrived on the scene and ordered the house evacuated. A few minutes later the explosion rocked the neighborhood.

Sovine and the three firemen were hospitalized with cuts and fractures.

Tuesday Wed

NEW YORK (UPI)—Actress Tuesday Weld was married Saturday to Claude Harz, the secretary to actor Roddy McDowall. McDowall was best man.

The marriage was announced by Miss Weld's agent, Dick Clayton, in Hollywood.

New Education Board Created

LANSING (UPI)—Acting Gov. William G. Milliken took his second major step in as many days toward governmental reorganization by signing an order that creates a new state Department of Education.

Acting in behalf of Gov. George Romney who is touring Japan, Milliken signed an executive act that creates the new eight-member board as of Nov. 15. The board members, each elected to eight-year terms, will appoint a superintendent of public instruction as the board's principal officer.

On Monday, Milliken had signed into law an executive order to create a new State Department as of Nov. 1. It will be the first department created under the Governmental Reorganization Act which is designed to consolidate more than 130 state agencies into 19 departments.

The new Michigan Board of Education will have jurisdiction over all levels of education in Michigan. It will encompass the present duties of the board and those of the Higher Education Assistance Authority, the Higher Education Facilities Commission and the State Tenure Commission.

Alexander J. Klosser, the present acting superintendent of public instruction, is expected to remain in that post at least through the transition period.

Officers Installed By Local Assembly

Officers of the 4th Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, Escanaba Assembly 540, and the Baraga Assembly of Iron Mountain recently were installed at ceremonies at the Sherman Hotel clubrooms.

Escanaba Assembly officers installed were: Leo LaViolette, navigator; Clinton Groos, captain; Ernest Bernier, comptroller; Arthur Messier Jr., admiral; Gene L. Marcantonio, pilot; Matt Kress, inner sentinel; Joseph Grondine, outer sentinel.

Donald Messier of Manistique conducted the ceremonies.

LINNEA LINDQUIST, TOWNSHIP CLERK

ELECTOR UNABLE TO MAKE PERSONAL APPLICATION, PROCEDURE

SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make a personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION, APPLICATION, TIME

SEC. 505. Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved there, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk upon receipt of the request shall sign the registration card and forward the new address, name and precinct number of the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the (30) days next preceding any election or primary election (unless such transfers shall be made on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he had not resided (90) days next preceding any election or primary election.

UNREGISTERED PERSONS NOT ENTITLED TO VOTE

SEC. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P.A. 1954.)

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION ON ELECTION DAY

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any elector in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

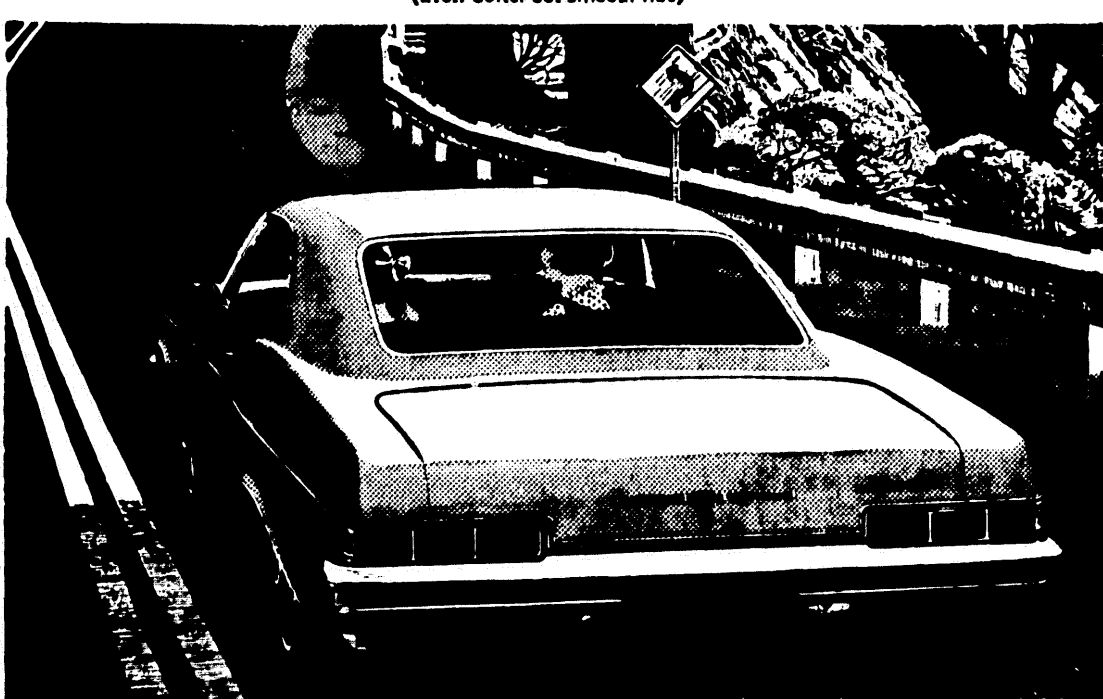

'66 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan

MIGHTY SMOOTH

(New Turbo-Jet V8)

(Even softer Jet-smooth ride)

'66 Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe—one of 19 models with fine-sculptured new Body by Fisher

NOW! '66 CHEVROLET JET-SMOOTHER IMPALA

If you go by first impressions, you could get the idea this clean-honed new '66 is more car than you ever got in an Impala before. And you'd be absolutely right.

Take Chevrolet's newest Turbo-Jet V8's, for instance. You can now order a 396-cubic-inch version with 325 hp. Or you can go for a 427-cubic-inch Turbo-Jet with up to 425 hp.

There's even a new, smoother version of the standard six.

The ride, too, has been refined to a new Jet-smooth level of comfort.

And there's more in the way of those little extras—that come as standard equipment. Like backup lights, padded instrument panel, and windshield washer. More in the way of custom features you can order, too, including AM-FM stereo and automatic Comforton heating and air conditioning.

How come so many improvements in a car that was already America's solid favorite? That, as you'll see when you check this one out at your dealer's, is what keeps it the favorite.

See the new '66 Chevrolet, Chevelle, Chevy II, Corvair and Corvette at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Hotel Sold At Naubinway

NAUBINWAY — Mr. and Mrs. George Dauber, Meredith, Mich., have purchased the Naubinway Hotel from Mr. and Mrs. James Sipe. Managing the business are Mr. and Mrs. Reno Yarden, also of Meredith. Margo L. Dauber, daughter of the owners, will assist as a waitress.

The Naubinway Hotel, located in the central part of the town on US-2, has long been a focal point for townspeople and tourists alike, for its zesty food, good service and comfortable sleeping accommodations. The cozy dining room, done in knotty pine, seats over 40. It features a coffee-snack bar. There are nine carpeted sleeping rooms with connected baths. Travelers with small children are pleased with the extra features of baby cribs and play pens.

A barber shop in connection with the hotel is being readied into a beauty shop and will be known as Eve's Hair Fashions of Naubinway. Mrs. Yarden, a licensed beautician, who had her own shop in Meredith for several years, will operate the business. The shop will be opened the latter part of the month.

George Dauber, Meredith, is owner of the D. & H. Services there, which include a grocery store, gift shop and gas station. Mr. and Mrs. Dauber are the parents of four children, three married and living in Lower Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Yarden have two married children who reside in Lower Michigan.

Lemmer Addresses Senior Citizens

A slide travelog on his recent trip through the Holy Land was presented by John Lemmer at the meeting of the Senior Citizens Committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce held at the Chamber building Tuesday afternoon. Chairman John J. Bartella presided.

Lemmer described the relationship between the Israelites and the people of Jordan and other Arabic peoples and stressed that although the locale of Christ's life was Israeli, most of it is now in Arabic hands and access is not freely gained by the people of Israel to these holy places.

Lemmer also spoke on the difference between East and West Berlin, stressing the economic and industrial strides made by West Germany over East Germany.

Dog Attacks; Shot By Youth

Escanaba police turned to Delta County Prosecuting Attorney Nicholas P. Chapekis today with a problem of law enforcement that included an ill-tempered dog and its death from a shotgun blast in a city alley early this morning.

The dog was owned by Diane Bartok of 1412 S. 1st Ave., and the killing of the dog was admitted to police by John Ferrari, 18, of 1221 N. 1st Ave.

Police said the story began at 5:18 p. m., Tuesday with a phone call from a mother who said that a large dog was at large in the alley of the 1500 block between Ludington and 1st Ave. S.

The dog had almost bitten her child, but a workman from Northern Motor Co., had beaten the dog away with a crowbar, she told police.

At 11:40 p. m., the police patrol heard shouts from the same area and discovered Ferrari "freed" on top of a parked truck, with the dog keeping him from descending.

The officers rescued Ferrari and put him into the patrol car. The dog ran off.

At 12:10 a. m., today Ferrari came to the police station and reported that he had shot and killed the dog, a boxer, and that its body was in the alley. Officers said he told them that the dog ran at him and that when the dog was within 20 feet he fired his shotgun, killing the dog instantly.

Police notified the owner of the dog and at her request disposed of the body.

Rock

Class Play
The Sophomore class of the Rock High School will present a one act comedy "Run, Robber, Run," at 9:30 p.m. in the High School Assembly.

Cast of characters is: Chris Kluz and Dan Johnson as professional robbers; Ellen Bakka the headmistress of a school for girls; Dale Weingartner as a teacher at the school; Jean Kivela, a sensible girl; Nancy Weldum, a spoiled child; Matt Ruotsala, a phony Western TV star; Carol Niemela, Nancy Lanjala, Rita Kaukola, Shirley Tyynela and Carol Lippens, school girls.

The plot of the play consists of two safe crackers trying to blow up the safe in the school while the girls have invited the TV star to the school without the knowledge of the headmistress.

Gene DeKeyser is class advisor and director of the play.

Halloween Dance

The Rock 4-H club is sponsoring a Halloween dance Friday, Oct. 29th from 8-10 p.m. at the Rock Lions clubhouse, for students age 10 through 14 years. Everyone is to wear costumes, and several prizes will be awarded. Trick or treat is to be observed between 6-8 p.m. Friday. Children are encouraged to wear something white and be very careful in crossing streets.

Leo Lusardi of Milwaukee donated a new starter for the Rock Community Ambulance.

Mrs. Walter Manntle returned Sunday from Rochester, Minn., where she had undergone an eye examination at the Mayo Clinic.

Harold Narotsky 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Narotsky, swallowed a common pin last week. He was hospitalized briefly in Marquette and given something to coat the pin. It passed and he was back in school Monday.

Fire In Float Adds Drama To School's Parade

ENGADINE — Linda Nichols, senior of Garfield Township schools, was chosen queen of the homecoming Saturday, Oct. 23. Daughter of Mrs. Charles LaCrosse, she received her crown at halftime ceremonies of the Garden and Engadine game from the local football captain, David Frazier. Engadine were the victors, 40 to 6.

A parade preceded the game with the Senior Class taking first prize in the float contest with their theme "Wet the Gardens." Second place went to the Junior Class whose theme was "Toast to Evil." Third place was awarded to the Sophomores with their "Float to Victory." The Freshman float "Burns and Jets" did just that. The float caught fire just as the parade was getting underway but was quickly extinguished by the Garfield Volunteer Fire Department, with no damage to the wagon reported. Dancing in the evening to the music of the Silvertones concluded the activities.

Homemakers Club

The Homemakers Club of Engadine met in the Garfield Township Hall Tuesday evening with hostess Mrs. Pearl Burns and Mrs. Frank Hastings. Officers elected are: President Mrs. Frank Hastings; Vice President Mrs. Pat Edwards; Secretary and Treasurer Mrs. Ernest Miller; Reporter Ms. Fred Schroeder Jr.

Meetings are scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month at the town hall at 8 p. m. November hostesses will be Mrs. Arden Youngs and Mrs. Frank McDowell.

The Christmas tea will be held in the Community Building, Newberry on Thursday, Oct. 28 from 2 to 4. Each member is requested to bring one dozen cookies and the recipe and any Christmas projects they have been working on to be displayed, along with the directions for making them.

Trenary

Officers Elected
An election of officers was held at the October meeting of the Home and School Service Club and the following will take office Nov. 1st: president, Peter Nance; vice president, Donald Sandstrom Sr.; secretary, Mrs. George Richmond, and treasurer, Mrs. Toivo Aho. During the October meeting, there was a discussion of the State Curfew law and vandalism to public property. A report was given on the progress of the Marquette-Alger Intermediate school board committees.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet Thursday, Oct. 28, at 8 p.m. at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Vance Davis spent the weekend in Swartz Creek, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Elmore. Mrs. Davis' granddaughter, Judy was married on Saturday.

Parent-teacher conferences will be held at the Trenary school, Monday, Nov. 1, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Two new dusk to dawn lights were installed in the school yard last weekend. These lights have long been needed for both safety and security.

Merit Award

Bill Sandstrom, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sandstrom Sr., has received a certificate of merit award from the Detroit Tiger try-out camp held this summer at the Soo. 170 boys between the ages of 10 and 22 attended the camp and ten received certificates of outstanding achievement. The boys were from the U. P. and the Northern part of Lower Michigan. Award winners will be watched by Tiger scouts in the future for possible players for the Detroit team.

Collision

A car driven by Lee Rushford, Gould City was struck in the rear by a car driven by Jack Raymond Arciszewski, Engadine, on Saturday, Oct. 23 at 4:20 p. m., by the Garfield Township School. Both cars were damaged but no injuries were reported. Summonses were issued to both drivers.

Grants Opened Up To Seniors

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan high school seniors have until next Monday to file their applications for the $2 million state competitive scholarship program, the Department of Education said Monday.

Competitive examinations are scheduled Nov. 20 at 143 testing centers throughout the state for approximately 5,000 new scholarships that will be available for 1966-67 at the 79 colleges and universities in the state.

Cost to the competing students is $1.50 each.

It will be the first year in which grants will be made to all 79 colleges. Alexander J. Kloster, acting Superintendent of Public Instruction, said other changes in the scholarship program made this year will increase its scope by granting residual awards to runners-up when initial winners become inactive and by requalifying students because of personal changes who were originally disqualified because of lack of financial need or plans to attend college out of state.

In the first year of the program, 1,292 scholarships were awarded, and this year 4,450 new grants were made, he said.

John Vargo Speaks At Bark River PTA

BARK RIVER — John Vargo, Marquette, executive director of Bay Cliff Health Camp at Big Bay, was guest speaker at the October meeting of the Bark River - Harris Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday evening.

"Bay Cliff operates for six weeks, starting in mid-June for therapy to handicapped children between the ages of four and sixteen," explained Vargo. "It operated on contributions from organizations and the Delta United Service. Children are chosen by the County Health Department at a cost of about $350 per child per season. There were 89 on the staff the past summer and 170 children enrolled."

A film "The Bay Cliff Story" was shown. Vargo was introduced by Mrs. Theodore Bash, program chairman.

Mrs. Raymond Mott reported a balance in the fluoride program fund and said a dental chair may be purchased.

There will be no December PTA meeting because of holiday activities. The next meeting will be Wednesday, Nov. 17. There are 51 members in the local PTA.

A subscription to the Parent-Teacher magazine will be sent overseas. Richard Hendra, superintendent, explained that ten teachers were absent due to the mathematics class being held in the school that evening. He said Federal funds have been given school districts for new projects and programs. Approximately $20,000 will be allotted this year and may be repeated for two more years.

Trick or Treat night has been set for Oct. 31. The Junior Class won the room award. Lunch was served by the kindergarten mothers.

A French ball cutter is inexpensive and helps to make such pretty fresh fruit cups for summer use. Use the cutter for preparing balls from cantaloupe, honeydew and watermelon; mix with seedless green grapes and serve for dessert with scoops of fruit sherbet.

Young Spooks Ready For Halloween Prowl

By JANET MARTIN
As "Holy Eve" or Halloween, as we know it approaches, small fry are busily selecting their costumes and maskery for the bewitching eve, schools are preparing for their annual carnivals and parties and people in general are stocking up on goodies and favors for the many wee goblins who will appear at their doors this Halloween.

In looking over the many selections of costumes available, it is very apparent that TV has certainly affected the market. The "space" and "Munster" type seem to be most in demand along with the traditional witch, black cat, ghost, satan and clown which are always favorites of the youngsters.

One thing parents should check for when buying or making costumes for their children, is to be sure that the fabric of the costume is flame-proof or can be treated in such a way so that it will be, at least for the time the child will be wearing it. With so many children going trick or treating and the often time crowded conditions at the school carnivals, this is one precaution all parents should take.

Party Games
While we are on safety, here is another thing to remember: When lighting jack-o-lanterns please use flashlights and not candles. This eliminates the possibility of curtains catching fire or of lighted jack-o-lanterns being pushed off outside porches by eager trick or treaters. While we are on the subject, trick or treating for the Escanaba area will be held on Friday, Oct. 29, from 5 to 7 p. m., and this is for grade school children.

Although Halloween is a perfect party time for all ages, it is especially so for the youngsters, and preparing for the event can be extra fun for them. They might create the invitations, making black cats, pumpkins and other Halloween figures from colored construction paper and then print their name, the date, place and hour of the party in white. There are also endless everyday things that they can gather for decorations, such as pumpkins, leaves, apples, cornstalks and pop corn.

No party would be complete without some scrumptious goodies, so how about this one for a new twist to an old idea?

Taffy Apple Rolls
2 packages dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup scalded milk
1 unbeaten egg
5-5 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 cup cooking oil
1/4 cup grated apple
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup corn syrup

Soften yeast in warm water. Add sugar and salt to milk; cool to lukewarm. Add yeast and egg; stir. Add 2 cups flour; beat until smooth. Add oil; stir. Add grated apple; stir. Add remaining flour to form stiff dough; knead. Cover; let rise at 85 degrees or until double.

Sprinkle 1 cup chopped nuts into 24 greased muffin cups. Mix and bring to boil 1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup butter and 1/2 cup corn syrup. Pour over the nuts. Cut dough into 24 pieces; form into balls; place over mixture. Cover; let rise 45 minutes. Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) about 20 minutes.

Wedding Party Given For Jerome Shelps

A wedding party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Shelp of Escanaba Rte. 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brunelle, Ford River Road on Saturday, Oct. 16.

Featured at the buffet lunch was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Music and dancing followed the buffet lunch and many relatives and friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelp were married Tuesday, Oct. 12 in Gladstone. Justice A. Mortier performed the double ring ceremony. They were attended by Mrs. Shelp's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Tardiff and their three little girls, Cherrie, Becky and Lisa. The Shelps now make their home in Rte. 1, Escanaba.

Word has been received by Mrs. Merle Pfotenbauer, 1501 8th Ave. S. of the death of her brother, George Johnston in Green Bay. His death resulted from a heart attack.

JON MILLER, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Miller of Rapid River, admires the pumpkin head he helped carve for the Miller porch to spook it up for Halloween. "His name is Jon," said his dad, "I have enough confusion with my name and my dad's without having another John in the family." (Daily Press Photo)

Carnival Trick Or Treat Plans, Hours Announced

Carnival trick or treating regulations for the public schools of the area, announced by the Escanaba Area PTA Council, are:

Area grade schools will hold carnivals at the schools Friday, Oct. 29, from 7 to 9.

Trick or treating should be limited to one night only from 5 to 7, Friday, Oct. 29.

Trick or treating should be limited to children in the elementary schools only.

Children should stay in groups where possible and small children should be accompanied by an adult.

Children should limit their trick or treat activities to their own neighborhood.

It is suggested that those persons wishing to contribute to trick or treaters, so signify by leaving the porch light on or placing a sign in the window.

Parents and teachers should inform children of these rules and urge strict compliance.

PTA Insignia Use Explained By Area Council

The Escanaba Area PTA Council met at the Jefferson School Monday. Local units were reminded to send their membership dues to state and national by Nov. 15 and to the Council before Dec. 1.

Escanaba Area PTA Council will sponsor the Nicolao Marionettes presenting "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" in Escanaba on May 14. The arrangements committee consists of John F. Leny, Roger Tourangeau and Mrs. Leo Niquette.

Louis Diedrich, principal of Lemmer and Webster schools, has accepted the position as legislative chairman for the Council.

The next meeting of Code of Responsibility for Parents and Children will be held at the Administration Building, Nov. 1 at 8 p. m. and all interested parents are invited to attend.

Mrs. Nyle Nelson, Washington School representative, gave a report of progress by the study group.

Committees were chosen for the Founder's Day program, Feb. 15, 1966. General chairman will be Mrs. Clyde Moersch, Jefferson School; Hospitality, Pine Ridge; Program, Ford River; Publicity, Soo Hill; School Count and Registration, Washington; Silver Collection, Lemmer and Social Hour, Wells and Webster.

President Mrs. Leo Niquette explained the proper use of the PTA insignia, which does not use initials. The PTA magazines and PTA are copyrighted trademarks of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and are registered in the U.S. Patent Office. "No PTC or PTO parent teacher club want the advantages without the obligations," she said. Refreshments were served by the PTA trademark unless it Mrs. Edward Jenschap, Mrs. is affiliated with the National Marvin Mylander and Mrs. Congress of Parents and Teachers. Clubs realize the importance of the PTA insignia and 24 at the Webster School.

MANISTIQUE

Adopt Plan For Senior Housing

The Manistique City Council Monday night adopted a program for community improvement, a first step in implementation for senior citizen housing.

Adoption of codes and ordinances, expected to be similar to state regulations, will be part of the program, which has seven basic elements relating to standards for health and safety, blight treatment and prevention, finance administration and increased citizen participation.

Named to a citizens committee for the project are Harold Carlson, Charles Varnum, Carl Graves, Jack Phillips, Robert Ebl and Clyde Strasser.

The program was adopted by the Council on submission by the manager, with changes to reflect the area's woodworking industry and other changes.

The resignation of Patrick LaFave as city assessor was accepted, as was that of Roy Stewart as constable. Stewart indicated he has not time for the work. LaFave is in line for appointment as director of the county tax department, and must resign his city position to be eligible.

A report was received on repairs needed to a ring gear and transmission parts of the bulldozer purchased through the Civil Defense program for $500. About $450 in parts will be needed, it was noted. The 23-ton machine is valued in excess of $25,000. It is scheduled to be ready Saturday, and will be valuable for sanitary landfill work at the dump and in improvement of the park frontage on Lake Michigan, Councilmen said.

Mayor Merwin White asked about procedure for abandonment of a part of a street in the 100 block of Schoolcraft, connecting with a railroad spur. Petition and public hearing is necessary.

Munising Church Will Mark 60th Birthday Sunday

The 60th anniversary of Eden Lutheran Church, Munising, will be observed Sunday.

The event, observed on Reformation Sunday, will have former residents, pastors and dignitaries attending from many places. A number of Manistique residents plan to attend.

For the 5:30 p.m. banquet in Central School, Atty. Arthur Neiman of Escanaba, former member of the church, will be master of ceremonies and Atty. U. S. A. Heggblom of Manistique will be guest speaker, according to the pastor, Rev. Leslie Niemi.

Saturday Set For 'Trick-or-Treat'

"We hope the children, the Goblins and everything going with it cooperate," Mayor Merwin White said Monday night as the City Council adopted a suggestion that Halloween trick-or-treat be done Saturday rather than Sunday.

Some Councilmen noted that the day has never been officially proclaimed for trick or treating. Others observed the Detroit City Council and others have adopted similar suggestions to avoid Sunday trick-or-treat.

One Councilman wondered what a person would do if a youngster came on Sunday, sack, costume and gobbledygook. The Council concluded that the children and parents would cooperate.

Luther League Collects Clothes

Luther League members held their annual scavenger hunt Monday night, collecting 1,465 pounds of used clothing from homes of the parish to send overseas to needy areas.

The winning team, captained by Starlette Winkler, gathered 618 pounds. Members were Karen Creighton, Karen Larsen, Nancy Babbitt, Sandy Wood, Tom Flodin, Phil Denman, Mike Orhanen and Bob Reid. In the three years the project has been conducted, high school youth have collected 3,360 pounds. The drive continues until Nov. 9.

The official final standings of the Great Lakes Conference in football will not be determined until a decision is made on a game between Sault Ste. Marie and Newberry in which Soo used an ineligible player. . . . Soo won the game by a 7-0 margin in the season opener. . . . A decision is expected to be made at the conference meeting at Munising Thursday, Nov. 4.

Great Lakes teams fared extremely well against non-conference competition this fall. . . . They played 22 games outside their conference, winning 14, losing 7 and tying one. . . . Three of those seven defeats were suffered by Marquette, a surprise team that won its last three conference games to finish second to the champion Munising Mustangs in the final standings.

The Escanaba Eskymos have been consistent, to say the least, in their eight games played thus far this season. . . . Escanaba has a 4-4 record. . . . The four victories were notched in home games, played in daytime. . . . The four defeats were suffered on the road, all under the lights.

Munising's 7-6 victory over Negaunee for the Great Lakes conference championship came when Dave Feldhusen recovered a fumble in the end zone with four minutes remaining in the game. . . . Jim Stangel, who had provided Coach Bill Earle's gridders with their lone touchdown in a 6-0 victory over Gladstone the previous week, slammed over for the extra point that provided the margin of victory. . . . Negaunee had led 6-0 from the first period on a nine yard touchdown run by John Argall.

Jeff Sitkoski, a speedy junior, scored two touchdowns and an extra point while gaining 170 yards in 15 carries as Iron River closed its season with a 20-13 Menominee Range Conference victory over Norway. . . . The Redskins had the misfortune of playing two tie games in conference competition (with Iron Mountain and Stambaugh) and finished fourth in the final league standings.

Finna Morris cracked a hefty 591 series on games of 224, 191 and 176 in the Thursday. . . . She carries a 165 season average.

A press box visitor during the Escanaba-Iron Mountain football game played in the snow storm here Saturday was Ron Rubick, coach of the St. Ignace Saints. . . . The former Manistique and Michigan State star played in a few football games during his illustrious career, but he said he had never been in a game played under such adverse weather conditions. . . . The Rubicks became parents of their first child, a son, last week.

Halfback Jim Malloch, a senior from Manistique, continues to be the top ball carrier on the Michigan Tech football team. . . . Malloch ripped off 88 yards in nine trips as the Huskies bowed to Bemidji, 9-8, Saturday. . . . That boosted his average per carry to 6.3 yards, on 170 in 27 trips. . . . Michigan Tech travels to Midland Saturday to play Northwestern Institute.

Quarterback Al Anderson ran for one touchdown and passed for another to lead Crystal Falls to its 27-6 victory over Hancock that gave the Trojans their first perfect football season since 1958. . . . Their eighth straight triumph was marred by the loss of regular halfbacks Ron Albiero and Bob Ahola with injuries early in the game.

DeTour closed out an undefeated season by downing downstate Petoskey St. Francis, 29-6, to clinch at least a tie for the Eastern Conference championship. . . . The Red Raiders won six games and played to a scoreless tie with Soo Loretto this fall.

Heffner Is New Manager Of Cincinnati Ball Club

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — men under consideration but declined to identify them. Heffner's salary was not disclosed.

Heffner, 54, will have a chance to prove Durocher wrong under a two-year contract given him by Reds President Bill Dewitt Tuesday.

He became manager of the Reds one day after Durocher returned to baseball as new manager of the Chicago Cubs. Heffner succeeds Dick Sisler, who was fired after the Reds' disappointing fourth-place finish in the National League.

"There have been a lot of nice guys who have won pennants," Heffner said in his introduction to newsmen. "I'm with Durocher on one point—I'm not out to win any popularity contests, either. I want to win as much as he does and I think I've got the club to do it."

The former American League infielder and a coach for the New York Mets the past two seasons did not apply for the Reds' job.

"He's one of the few guys in baseball who didn't laugh at Dewitt, who added he had six

Gilmer To Give Izo Plum's Job As Lions Skid

DETROIT (UPI) — Journeyman George Izo, given his first regular job in five years, took the assignment today of lifting the drab Detroit Lions from a three-game losing skid.

Izo was installed Tuesday as first string quarterback by coach Harry Gilmer. Veteran Milt Plum was benched only six games after winning a much-heralded battle with Earl Morrall for the Lions' "permanent" quarterback job.

Gilmer also benched fullback Nick Pietrosante and gave his starting job to Amos Marsh.

Detroit is last in the National Football League in scoring and has lost three straight games, including a 38-10 debacle to Chicago last Sunday, after winning three in a row to start the season.

"While I definitely am not singling out Milt for our lack of punch, it is no secret he is not having a good season thus far," Gilmer said. "I have decided to give Plum a little rest and at the same time find out what Izo can do as a starter."

Izo, 27, is a Notre Dame graduate who has played for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Redskins, but never as a starter. His career record shows 63 pass completions in 153 attempts.

The Lions acquired him early this season and have played him less than a half. He has thrown 19 times, completed 7 and had 3 interceptions including one which the Bears returned 89 yards for a touchdown last Sunday.

Plum, a nine-year NFL veteran, has 70 completions in 152 attempts this season. He has passed for seven touchdowns and had 12 passes intercepted.

Plum and Morrall alternated at quarterback under coach George Wilson last season. Gilmer took the reins this year and announced he would choose one of the two. Plum won the duel on the basis of his performance in pre-season exhibition games and Morrall was traded to New York.

The Lions' third quarterback is Tommy Meyers, a rookie from Northwestern who has not even played much in practice.

Nebraska Solid Favorite Over Missouri Team

NEW YORK (UPI) — Second-ranked Nebraska pits its potent offense against eighth-rated Missouri's tight-fisted defense in a Big Eight Conference game Saturday with the Cornhuskers rated eight point favorites.

Nebraska is averaging 37 points per game with its lowest output 27 against the Air Force Academy. Missouri, once beaten and once tied, has permitted the opposition two touchdowns in only one game, when the Tigers played a 14-14 tie with UCLA.

Michigan State, the newly crowned No. 1 team in the UPI ratings, is rated a strong 18-point favorite to dump Northwestern.

Arkansas, No. 3, is an overwhelming choice over Texas A&M in a Saturday night game at Little Rock. Fourth-rated Notre Dame is listed 20 points better than Navy. Once beaten Florida, ranked fifth, is rated seven points over Auburn.

Louisiana State, No. 6, travels to Jackson, Miss., for a meeting with Ole Miss and is considered three points better.

Seventh-rated Purdue is up against a stern challenge from Illinois and looms a one-point choice.

UCLA, the No. 10 college in the ratings, is a prohibitive favorite over the Air Force and ninth-ranked Southern California takes a week off after its disappointing showing against Notre Dame last Saturday.

In other games of national interest, Syracuse and Pittsburgh invade Shea Stadium in New York with the Orange favored by six points; Alabama and Mississippi State meet in a significant southern duel with the Crimson Tide a seven-point choice; in a Big 10 battle Ohio State is three over Minnesota; and in the wild and woolly Southwest, Texas is listed 12 points better than Southern Methodist.

Other top games by section:

East: Army 15 over Colgate; Dartmouth 13 over Yale; Princeton 28 over Brown, and Cornell 10 over Columbia.

South: Georgia Tech 11 over Duke; Virginia 4½ over North Carolina State; Florida State 12 over Virginia Tech and Clemson 8 over Wake Forest.

Midwest: Iowa State 3 over Oklahoma State; Iowa 5 over Indiana; Michigan 9 over Wisconsin, and Oklahoma 6 over Colorado.

Southwest: Baylor 7 over TCU; Texas Tech 8 over Rice. West: Oregon State 3 over Washington State; Washington 1 over Stanford, and Penn State 7 over California.

In the professional ranks: National Football League: Dallas is 4 over Pittsburgh; Los Angeles 4 over Detroit; Green Bay 4 over Chicago; Baltimore 6 over San Francisco; Washington 6 over Philadelphia; Cleveland 6 over Minnesota, and St. Louis 7 over New York.

American Football League: Kansas City 2 over Oakland; New York 3 over Denver; Buffalo 7 over Houston, and San Diego 14 over Boston.

CAPTAINS of Escanaba and Holy Name high school football teams pause during final workouts for the first game in history between the schools, scheduled for 2 Saturday afternoon at the Escanaba Athletic Field. The game, final for both teams this season, will be a Great Northern Conference contest. Eskymo tri-captains at the top are Steve Oman and Ed Gauthier, kneeling with Bob Haack standing. Holy Name's tri-captains at the bottom are, left to right: Bill Fodor, John Lark and Peter Petr. The schools have never met on the gridiron, although Escanaba and Holy Name teams have competed in past years in basketball, track, golf, tennis and baseball. Membership in the newly formed Great Northern Conference brought about the football meeting. Other teams in the league are Stephenson, Menominee, Iron Mountain and Kingsford. (Daily Press Photos)

Rules Outlined For Holy Name, Esky Grid Game

A capacity crowd is expected Saturday afternoon when Escanaba and Holy Name meet for the first time in football at the Escanaba High School Athletic Field —and the schools will split the gross receipts down the middle.

This is one of several game regulations announced today by officials of the two schools.

The receipts will be equally divided between the schools and the "home team" will pay the regular game expenses such as officials fees, workers, etc. The same will be true of the junior varsity game. Escanaba is the home team Saturday.

The regulations governing the game also stipulate that regular school athletic passes will not be honored and only band members and cheerleaders in uniform will be allowed free admission. Great Northern Conference passes will be honored for the conference game. Each school is granted six passes by the conference.

Four game officials, approved by both schools, will be used and each school will have a representative on the scoreboard timer.

Game programs and concessions are the responsibility of the home team each year. The home team will use the west sidelines in front of the stands while the visiting team will occupy the bench on the east sideline.

As for the stands, the home team fans are asked to occupy the south half of the stadium and the visitors the north half.

Field maintenance, lining, custodial service will be the responsibility of Escanaba Area High School. Regular rental fee will be paid by Holy Name when it is the home team. The fieldhouse will be used by Escanaba Area High School.

We can wrap it up in seven words, "Seagram's 7 Crown is The Sure One".

ROBLEE.

A new Roblee "brog" and its Scotch-Irish granddaddy

As early as 1600, Scotch and Irish countrymen were wearing a shoe made from a single piece of untanned deerhide with the hair still on, and tied with thongs. It was called a "brog."

Its descendants are here in our store today . . . without hair . . . and known as brogues. A fine example, the Imperial, is pictured above.

Black, Brown and Cordovan Color

Roblee brogues have every feature you like in a business shoe. Husky, hearty looks. Rugged, lustrous leathers, rubbed and rolled till they're soft and pliant. And a light, comfortable feel on your foot.

Drop around for a pair of Roblee brogues. And remember to tip your hat to the O'Donnells and Macphersons that you meet.
